

Springtime just outside Berlin. A German school teacher and his class of girls on the week end walk, which is being prescribed in all schools for the younger pupils. Underwood & Underwood.

An informal photograph of the seldom pictured Secretary of the Treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, and his beautiful daughter, Miss Ailsa, as they appeared at the Washington, D. C., horse show. Wide World.

The "Samuel Gompers" of Germany Anton Erkelenz, chairman of the German Labor Union. He wields in his country much the same power and influence Gompers exerts in the United States. Kadel & Herbert.

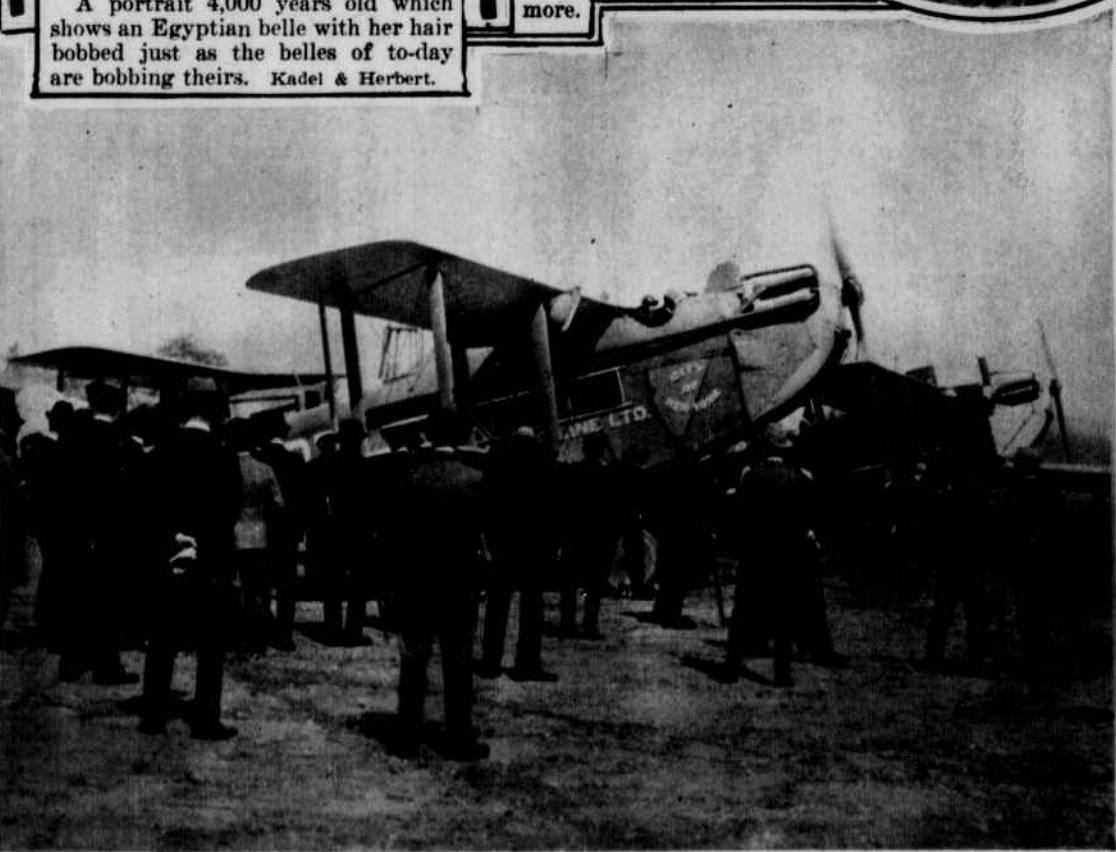

Miss "Polly" Thayer, the pretty daughter of Mrs. John B. Thayer of Philadelphia, who is to marry H. Hoffman Dolan June 17. Keystone.

A portrait 4,000 years old which shows an Egyptian belle with her hair bobbed just as the belles of to-day are bobbing theirs. Kadel & Herbert.

At right—Senora Esther N. de Calvo, wife of the secretary to the President of Panama, who represented her country at the Pan-American Congress of Women at Baltimore.

New York advertised abroad. The first airplane assigned for regular air service between London and Brussels was christened "City of New York." It is shown here starting on its first scheduled flight from Brussels to England. Central News.

The Eighth U. S. Infantry field day at Coblenz, the last athletic event on foreign soil. Gen. Allen is shown presenting Capt. White, Company L, with the Y. M. C. A. cup for highest points in running, jumping, shot put, tug of war and medicine ball. Company L is shown at attention, and Col. Bates, commander of the Eighth, is at the extreme left on the platform. Wide World.

Secretary of State Hughes arriving at the Pan-American Building in Washington to open the first session of the Tacna-Arica parley. Harris & Ewing.

The Queen of the May and her ladies of honor at Swarthmore College May Day. Miss Helen Gauthrop, the Queen, is seated on her throne. The maid of honor at her left is Miss Elizabeth Colket. The others are left to right above Miss Margaret Levern; (below) Miss Louise Firmin, Miss Alice Schrack, Miss Anna Roberts. Underwood & Underwood.